- WHY A HEALTH AND WELLBEING STRATEGY?

SETTING THE CONTEXT

- Marmot review – social determinants of health
- Health and Social Care Bill – reforms to the way health services are delivered
 - GP led commissioning consortia
 - Public Health transfer to local authority
- Strengthening Local Democratic & Community Leadership
 - Improve health and wellbeing in the local area and close the inequalities gap
 - Lead joint strategic needs assessments to ensure coherent and coordinated commissioning strategies
 - Support local voice, and the exercise of patient choice
 - Promote integration and joined-up commissioning of local NHS services, social care and health improvement; and
 - Lead on local health improvement and prevention activity.

WHAT DO WE HAVE TO DO?

- Set up our Health and Wellbeing Board
- Establish and have authorised our Clinical Commissioning Group
- Put in place a Joint Strategic Needs Assessment
- Establish HealthWatch
- Transfer Public Health including the Director of Public Health
- Develop a Health and Wellbeing Strategy

BUILD AND STRENGTHEN OUR RELATIONSHIPS ACROSS THE WHOLE SYSTEM

CLINICAL COMMISSIONING GROUP

- Sunderland CCG was established in March 2011
- Aiming to get authorisation October 2012
- Members from 54 GP practices across Sunderland
- 6 GPs elected to form a Board
- 2 GPs sit on the Health and Wellbeing Board
- Must pay regard to the Health and Wellbeing Strategy in development of plans and priorities

THE HEALTH AND WELLBEING BOARD

- Sunderland Early Implementer Health and Wellbeing Board formed in July 2011
- The Board will become statutory in April 2013
- Adults Partnership Board and Children's Trust act as advisory groups to the Board
- The Board will look to align commissioning priorities across the City and drive integrated working
- The Board is responsible for producing both the JSNA and the Strategy

JOINT STRATEGIC NEEDS ASSESSMENT

- The Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA) is an ongoing process to identify current and future health and wellbeing needs of the local Sunderland population
- The JSNA process was launched in October 2011 with an engagement event
- Information provided was used to set out 26 initial health profiles
- The JSNA is one of the key ways of ensuring that the Health and Wellbeing Strategy reflects the needs of Sunderland people

HEALTHWATCH

- The aim of HealthWatch is to strengthen patient and public voice at both local and national levels
- HealthWatch will be running by April 2013
- HealthWatch will act as the patient and public representation on the Health and Wellbeing Board
- HealthWatch England will provide leadership, support and advice for local HealthWatch organisations

PUBLIC HEALTH TRANSITION

- Public health duties will transfer from the PCT into the local authority from April 2013
- Local authorities will have a new duty to improve the health of their population
- Local authorities will employ Directors of Public Health

HEALTH AND WELLBEING STRATEGY

- The Health and Social Care Bill states every local authority area must produce a Health and Wellbeing Strategy by October 2012
- The Health and Wellbeing Strategy should be a joint strategy between the local authority, the Clinical Commissioning Group and the people of Sunderland
- The Health and Wellbeing Strategy will set out the health priorities for the City
- The Strategy will be informed by existing City wide strategies ,the JSNA, information from providers, partners and residents
- Priorities identified in the strategy will inform commissioning intentions for the City

WHY HAVE A HEALTH AND WELLBEING STRATEGY?

- Not just because we 'have to'
- Will ensure the City has a shared vision of what we want to achieve
- Will foster joint working and partnership
- Will provide a focus for decision making, commissioning of services
- Will challenge partners to achieve the best outcomes for residents
